Mr. and Mrs. Scant Hall and son, Frank, of Meagsville, were in town Tuesday.

Miss Grace Sadler, of Rough Point, was the of Miss Ethel Anderson last week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Haile and son were the guests of Cookeville relatives Sunday and Monday.

Chas Brown was in Nashville several days this week, where he took his son, Sam Talyor, for an operation of his tonsils.

Misses Christen Settle, Ethel Anderson and Lola Hughes were the guest of Miss Blanche Dundey in Freestate, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Montgomery and children, Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Bailey and daughter, Ruby, were the guests of relatives in Freestate, Sunday.

Mrs. Walter Forkum, of Nashville, was in Gainesboro Tuesday enroute home from a week's visit with her father, W. A. Dycus, Haydenburg R-1.

H. R. Young, of Chattanooga, was in Gainesboro the first of the week. His wife and son, who have been spending some time in Cookeville accompanied him home.

John Johnson, of Haydenburg, was in Gainesboro today to meet his wife, who had been in Nashville for a month visiting their daughter, Mrs. C. E. Holloway.

S. B. Anderson and J. M. Cox of Cookeville, were in Gainesboro today enroute home from Vernon Ky., where they had been to see Capt. G. W. Stephens, who is critical ill.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Overton and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Morgan, of Roaring river, were in Nashville last week, where they consulted specialists relative to Mesdames Overton and Morgan's health.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Johnson and Fred Haile, of Flynn's Lick, attended the annual conference of the Lebanon District at Carthage last week. They were delighted with the conference and the hospitality shown them while in Carthage.

J. B. Mathews, of near Highland, was in town Saturday on business. He is glad to receive the Sentinel at $1.50 a year and thinks it is worth more. He is right about this, as the Sentinel publishes over 10,000 local news items in 12 months time.

Lee Anderson, of Gallatin, representing the life and accident department of the Travelers Insurance Co., Hartford, Conn., was in Gainesboro several days this week. Mr. Anderson is a former Jackson county boy, having lived at Flynn's Lick. His friends are glad to see him again.

Miss Eula Dycus, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Walter Forkum in Nashville, will enter Peabody College, where she will take the summer course for teachers. Miss Dycus will teach in Smith county this year, having been offered a position in the best schools of that county. It is regrettable that such excellent teachers as Miss Dycus are allowed to leave their home county, all because they are paid a better salary elsewhere.

Will Carver, of Wartrace, was in town Tuesday on business.

J. M. Pearson, of Defeated R-1, was here Tuesday on business.

Laborn Mabry, of Cookeville, was in Gainesboro the first of the week.

RED SEAL LYE

LIGHTENS EVERY WOMAN'S WORK

A Remarkable Product That Saves Women Time, Money and Work

USE Red Seal Lye according to directions and you've got the greatest cleaning power on earth. Lye is the basis for all soaps. Red Seal Lye not only cleans, but disinfects and purifies at the same time.

You can make your own soap by mixing Red Seal Lye with grease according to directions. You can make a wonderful cleansing water by dissolving a teaspoonful of Red Seal Lye in a quart of water. This solution will help you in washing and cleaning anything and everything about the house with safety. A little Red Seal Lye sifted into the sink cleans out the pipes and keeps them from becoming stopped up.

Red Seal Lye is the finest quality lye that can possibly be made, and is all pure granulated lye, without any foreign ingredients added. Use it for all purposes according to directions. Red Seal Lye is packed in cans that are easy and convenient to use—you simply sift the lye into the water without any danger to your hands whatever.

Always ask your storekeeper for, and be sure to get, the old reliable Red Seal Granulated Lye.

P. C. TOMSON & CO., Philadelphia, Penna.

The Very Best Lye Your Money Can Buy

When you get a can of Red Seal Lye, tear off the label and read the directions on the reverse side. They will tell you many ways to lighten your work—and how to use it safely and economically.
